

Name:	Andrew Miller
Family:	Three young children
Education:	Attended Inveralmond Community High School before taking up an apprenticeship with Ferranti Scotland. Studied Electronic Engineering at Napier University and
Career:	Worked as a radar engineer for 10 years
Political history:	Has been a West Lothian Councillor since 1995
Particular aim / interest	Passionate about Education. Actively involved in many local groups including West Lothian Youth Action Project, a director of the highly successful West Lothian Youth Theatre and a Trustee of Almond Valley Heritage Trust.
Other interests/hobbies:	Enjoys reading, motorsport, movies and football, playing a little and supporting local teams Livingston FC and Livingston United. Also enjoys internet publishing and has ran the LiviLions.co.uk website for over 10 years.
Contact:	Andrew.miller@westlothian.gov.uk