

| | |
|--------------------------------------|---|
| | |
| Name: | Jim Dixon |
| Family: if you wish | Two daughters |
| Education: if you wish | Attended Lindsay High School, Bathgate, West Lothian College, Napier College and Moray House/Heriot Watt University. Gained Diploma in Youth and Community Work and a Masters Degree in Community Education |
| Career: | Electrician, Youth Worker, Training Officer, Community Education Officer, Ageing Well Coordinator |
| Political history: | Trade Union member and shop steward (NALGO / Unison) Planning Secretary – Armadale Community Council Secretary – Bathgate Community Council Labour Party member for 15 years Board member Acredale House, Bathgate Board member Age Concern (Scotland) Elected May 2007 as councillor for Armadale and Blackridge |
| Particular aim / interest | To ensure that West Lothian is a good place to live and work |
| Other interests/hobbies: if you wish | Chair of Generation Arts Association Tutor with OMUS (Older Men Under Stress) Project Member of Spring Grove Bowling Club Developing Cultural and Business links with China Music and Theatre, Football and Photography |
| Contact: | Jim.Dixon@westlothian.gov.uk |