

“Introduction to Archives”

Group sessions now offered at West Lothian Council Archives and Records Centre

Learn how to look after archival material

Come and see our collections

Explore our new catalogue

Images supplied with the kind permission of Almond Valley Heritage Trust and the Shale Villages Project

Find out:

- What are archives?
- How to handle archives
- How to search for archival material

Sessions can be tailored to the interests of particular groups. Groups will be given a chance to explore and handle archival material relating to their local area.

For further information, or to make a booking, contact Emma Peattie on 01506 773770. Alternatively email archive@westlothian.gov.uk

West Lothian
Council